ABOUT THE SPEAKER:
Ali Hall, J.D. is a member of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT) and an independent consultant and trainer. Ali has designed and facilitated over nine hundred Motivational Interviewing workshops for health care practitioners, behavioral health clinicians, psychologists, psychiatrists and criminal / juvenile justice professionals, and provides training for trainers in evidence-based practices. Ali provides MI coding and skill development coaching, and provides consultation to systems for effective MI implementation. Ali also serves as a reviewer for the National Registry for Evidence-Based Practices and Programs (NREPP). Ali spent her undergraduate years at Occidental College in Los Angeles, and completed her graduate studies in organizational behavior at the School of Industrial and Labor Relations at Cornell University as well as her J.D. at the Cornell University School of Law. In her spare time, Ali is a cold water marathon swimmer, raising funds for at-risk kids’ charities.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP:
Introduction to Motivational Interviewing will be a fast-paced, thoughtful and interactive experience with Motivational Interviewing concepts and skills. Topics to be explored include: importance, confidence and readiness for change; engaging, focusing, evoking and planning for change; and differential evocation and reinforcement of patient talk that favors movement toward change. This workshop will provide a foundation for future learning and ideas for increased skillfulness in Motivational Interviewing.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:
At the conclusion of this presentation, participants will:
1. Increase our ability to enhance importance, confidence and readiness for change.
2. Collaborate with patients for positive change.
3. Identify patient talk that favors change.
4. Selective reinforcement of patient talk that favors change.
5. Conduct an autonomy supportive information exchange using elicit-provide-elicit.

SCHEDULE:
Workshop is scheduled from 12:00pm—5:00pm on Friday, November 20th and 9:00am—4:30pm on Saturday, November 21st. Detailed schedule is available online at www.NVPsychology.org.
