The 350th Anniversary of the Arrival of the Carignan-Salières Regiment

www.chateauramezay.qc.ca

November 19, 2014 to October 16, 2016

Château Ramezay – Historic Site and Museum of Montréal | 280 Notre-Dame Street East | Metro: Champ-de-Mars

Produced in collaboration with historian and archivist Michel Langlois, the exhibition traces the lives of officers and soldiers from the Carignan-Salières regiment and De Tracy's troops as they set out to carve a nation. Follow them on this great human adventure that marked not only Québec's place names but also its patronyms and its people. Why did they come? What did they achieve? How were they equipped to face the Iroquois, not to mention Québec's winters? Learn the answers to these questions and find out whether you are a descendant of one of these soldiers, by consulting our genealogical database.
